NEW WARS SEEN IN ALLIES' FEEBLENESS AT GENOA

PARIS, April 19.—The Paris press, almost without exception, see new wars as a result of what is regarded as the allies' "feebleness" at Genoa. BEAUTY OF NATURE FOUND IN RUSTIC PARK PAVILION

Eucalyptus Boughs and Palm Branches to Give Shelter to Verdugo Woodland Folk

Architecture native to California, utilizing the eucalyptus boughs and palm branches for a pavilion to be used by the F. P. Newport company—that is the work being completed this week-end by George Harris of Los Angeles and Tujunga, the builder of the far-famed Bolton hall and other natural structures.

This latest work of Mr. Harris is located off Canada boulevard on Ramona Drive in Verdugo Woodlands, the beautiful foothill subdivision, and it is destined to be the meeting place of hundreds who will make their homes in that favored section of this city.

It took 25 tons of poles and logs, 7,000 palm leaves and a lot of work, but the pavilion will last for 20 years or longer. The floor is also very durable, being crushed, decomposed granite.

Picnic Park Nearby

At each end of the circular building is a small office for the tract salesmen and close by in the natural park of live oaks, elders and sycamores will be found rustic seats, drinking fountains and comfort stations.

Nothing similar may be found in the vicinity of Glendale and it is an ideal spot for a Sunday picnic or holiday. In fact, that is one of the big reasons the Newport company had it built that way. But, to revert to Mr. Harris, he was the manager of a publishing house branch in St. Louis in 1901. He tired of the sham and pretense of the metropolis, however, and sought solace in the beauties of nature.

You cannot speak of success of this kind—you must see it. And in the Verdugo Woodlands is a most striking object lesson as to the fitness of all things, the utility of that which God has given and an actual demonstration of the resourcefulness of man were he to be dependent on nature alone.

Now, as to the materialistic side of this achievement, W. L. Twining,

Alice Frank Becomes Harry A. James' Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. James, Who Are Now Honeymooning at Carmel-By-the-Sea After Church Wedding Last Night.

BEAUTIFUL and impressive was the wedding ceremony at the First Presbyterian church last night, Tuesday, April 18, 1922, at 8 o'clock, at which time Miss Alice Frank, daughter of Mrs. Harriet F. Frank of 1558 East Wilson avenue, became the bride of Harry A. James.

The church had been decorated with potted palms and greenery. Sprays of ivy were draped from the pipe organ, from which also extended garlands of smilax and bridal-wreath to the bridal arch. This was also of bridal-wreath and smilax, tied with white tulle and on top of which was perched a white dove. Baskets of calla lilies, bridal-wreath and greenery, and white Cherokee roses were also used in decoration.

It was in front of the arch that the couple plighted their troth. Reverend W. E. Edmonds of the First Presbyterian church officiated, the single ring service being used. The special arrangement used at the ceremony, which was very simple but beautiful, was written for the occasion by Reverend W. E. Edmonds. Dr. S. Lawrence Ward, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church, invoked the divine blessing.

Beautiful Musical Program

Preceding the wedding ceremony Mrs. Harrison Frank, sister-in-law of the bride, very beautifully rendered several selections of nuptial music on the pipe organ. She also accompanied Frank Geiger, who sang "Oh Promise Me" from Robin Hood and "O Radiant Hour" (Stevens). This was followed by other organ numbers by Mrs. Frank, who also played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" (Wagner).

The bridesmaids entered and passed single file down each of the aisles to the altar. Miss Barbara Mitchell, who wore a gown of seashell pink taffeta, trimmed with hand-made flowers of a darker hue, and carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas and greenery, came down one aisle, followed by Miss Janie Mitchell in lavender taffeta, also carrying pink sweet peas. Miss Myrtle Pulliam led the procession down the other aisle. She was gowned in pale yellow taffeta with hand-made flowers as trimming and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas. She was followed by Miss Mildred Meeker, who wore a blue taffeta with hand-made flower trimmings and carried pink sweet peas. All of these charming gowns were made with the bouffant skirts and hinted at the new longer length which has been decreed by Dame Fashion for this season. Next in line came Miss Lorraine Mitchell, maid of honor, who

BOTH FLAPPER AND FLIPPER IN NEED OF DISCIPLINE

That's Dr. Von Kleinsmid's Advice at Father and Son Banquet Last Night

The Spring Father and Son banquet last night in the dining room of the First Methodist church was attended by about 600 boys—old and young.

Dr. Rufus Bernard Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Southern California, was the speaker of the evening.

A demonstration was given of a radio receiving set in combination with a magnavox.

A number of jokes were told by Dale Wood of 1470 East Wilson avenue, who acted as toastmaster. He was introduced by David Black of 1450 Kenneth Road, member of the grammar school board of education.

Two cornet solos were played by Ivan Dow, who was accompanied on the piano by Carl Seitter of 210 South Cedar street.

Enthusiasm Prevails

An enthusiastic demonstration of popularity was given to Rex Kelley of 1109 North Louise street, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. organization. At the direction of Sam Sutherland, yell leader for Occidental, all present arose and gave Mr. Kelley a cheer.

"The Hi-Y is a national organization," declared George Jordan of 223 Hawthorne street. "The Hi-Y groups spread out all over the United States. They have a four fold program, physical, educational spiritual and social. The big thing about this program is that it is not just a theory. It is practical and it works."

Experiences at a Y. M. C. A. camp were related briefly by Meredith Brown of 201 Milford street who said that he had enjoyed a fine time and that he hoped a large number of boys would be able to go this summer.

"Fathers, your son is looking to you," declared Charles W. Kinnear, secretary of the Father and Son League. "Too often we fathers have brought children into the home and when they have reached a certain age have forgotten them. The Father and Son League has been brought into existence and is being

In describing the trip, Mr. Beran said that, after leaving Bishop, they went to the summit of Mt. Whitney where snow was found. After a few days here, the party went to their mountain home at Lone Pine where they spent ten days and Mr. Beran said that the country is beautiful there, the streams full of trout and the woods alive with big game.

"One of the most interesting things on the trip was the town of Randsburg," Mr. Beran stated. "Randsburg is a new boom mining town and a silver mine has just come in. The people were wild, running around the streets, and automobiles were parked five deep along the sides of the streets."

However, after looking the business conditions of the many towns in which he spent his time while on the trip, Mr. Beran said that the local conditions in Glendale top all of them and he is glad to get back.

LITERARY SECTION OF TUESDAY CLUB GIVES PROGRAM

Varied Entertainment Proves to Be Acceptable; Amendments Being Considered

had been abandoned. Announcement will be made in a few days regarding other entertainments planned for the benefit of the clubhouse building fund.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson stated that it was proposed that a matinee benefit would be given at the Glendale Theatre in the near future, at which time the films of the pageant of California, which was produced at the state convention of women's clubs at Yosemite last year will be shown. The benefit is for the purpose of securing funds to have the name of Mrs. Cora Taylor, first president of the Tuesday Afternoon club and now deceased, placed upon the "founders' roll" of the endowment fund.

Mrs. Hutchinson stated that numerous requests had been made by the state chairman of the endowment fund as to what Glendale was going to do along that line.

"The purpose of the endowment fund is that in club work, as in other lines, very often capable women are found who cannot meet the expenses entailed in various offices," she said. "If her expenses were paid she would be of great value to the state. It is in order to keep the work out of the hands of the people who have money alone that it has been established. All of the interest of the money in this fund goes to pay the expenses of the various chairmen and departments of the state work, the only consideration being the merit and ability of the woman."

Matters of Interest

The state convention of women's clubs will be held this year in Los Angeles, May 3 to 6, at Bovard auditorium, University of Southern California.

Reciprocity Day will be observed by the Tuesday Afternoon club on May 16, at which time in compliment to Mrs. R. E. Chase, who is district chairman of drama, the program will be given by the members of the drama section, of which she is curator.

The birthday march was inaugurated at yesterday's session, those having birthdays during the week contributing to the clubhouse building fund.

The program for the afternoon opened with the singing of "America," with Mrs. L. N. Hagood at the piano. She also accompanied Miss Helen Sayre, who very delightfully rendered "When in Thine Eyes I Gaze, Dear Heart" (Stevens), "Vanizas Song" (Solovieve), and as an encore, "My Curly Headed Baby." Little Margaret Chase was very charming in the recitations and songs given by her, which included "You Can't Guess What He Wrote on My Slate," "Don't," "The Worm," and several others.

Rev. Harley G. Preston of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church gave an interesting account of some of his experiences while in the army, telling of the people of France, conditions and customs there. He also urged the members of the club to vote for the Wright bill which will be presented at the polls and which is a state bill for the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

Mrs. Nanno Wood was present and explained the objects of her "Get Acquainted" dancing class to be held at her home every Thursday night, and which she stated would be of great assistance to the many visitors and newcomers to this city who have no way of getting acquainted with desirable people in home surroundings.

Industrially Burbank is making rapid strides this year and the latest announcement of importance is made by Secretary R. W. Colburn of the Chamber of Commerce there to the effect that the firm of Edwards & Wildey will assist in financing factory buildings.

Fruit Growers Optimistic

Kennedy, at a recent meeting of the Lankershim Chamber of Commerce, talked very optimistically from the fruit growers' standpoint, saying that the prosperity of the country was improving and the fruit grower would get his share with good prices for his fruit. He thought apricots would not be below $30 and might possibly run to $60. No prices have been made or contracts offered on canned goods.

Sewer Bond Election Called

May 16 is the date selected by the Burbank board of trustees for the sewer farm bond election. All of the members concurred in the first reading of the ordinance calling the election. "The kind of a dad I would like my father to be," was explained briefly by Kenneth Lee. This toast was replied to by W. A. Horn of 221 North Louise street with "The kind of a son I would like my son to be."

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. E. E. Ford, pastor of the Baptist church.

The speaker then was introduced by Dr. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church who said that Dr. Von Kleinsmid was the most spoken of man in Los Angeles at the present time.

Dr. Von Kleinsmid Speaks

"There is in all history no day so truly to be described by the word restless as that in which we live," remarked Dr. Von Kleinsmid. "And, because of the disorganization of social institutions, probably the first to suffer is the American home. I recall a simple home of twenty years ago. Except in the most remote sections of the United States such a home no longer exists.

"I am not a pessimist. I believe that in the future we are still going to have in the home the very best thing outside of Heaven. However, the condition which confronts us does make us exceedingly serious.

"Every boy and every girl in the American home lives a life peculiarly their own and reflex of the conditions in which they live—a set of conditions so different from whose in which you and I lived that it is only with the most serious thought that we find between us any common ground of sympathetic understanding.

"I like a 'flapper' for some reasons. If it fell to me to be responsible for bringing her up, I think I would trounce her occasionally. I like within certain narrow limits the 'flapper's' brother, the 'flipper.' If I were responsible for him, I think I would spank him even more frequently than his sister. But that wouldn't bring us to anything resembling close, sympathetic co-operation. And, if the problem of the day is to be worked out at all, it is upon that basis.

"Not necessarily does a father know how to bring up a son because he has one. Because you have the rickets doesn't mean that you can cure the manifestation of that disease in another person. I have known some maiden ladies and some bachelors who knew a great deal more about bringing children into maturity than most parents.

"We never, as parents, shall be able to go back into the lives of the boys and girls. You are weary today of the hilarity demanded by children in order to be amused at all. The fun of life doesn't depend upon jazz; it doesn't depend upon the moving picture show; it doesn't depend upon the airplane or anything else which moves fast and furiously.

'It is very difficult for adulthood to realize that the religion of childhood is peculiarly their own.

"I say to you frankly it isn't at all necessary for a boy to sow wild oats. He never again will be quite so fine; he never again will be quite so big; he never again will be quite so noble as he would have been if he hadn't sown them. He has lost something which he will never get again."

TOM MIX THRILLER 'SKY HIGH' NOW AT GLENDALE

Shows Airplane in Grand Canyon; Larry Semon's Latest Comedy on Bill

Tom Mix in his latest Fox thriller, "Sky-High," is booked for the Glendale Theatre for three days beginning today.

This picture is declared to contain the high speed record of Mix's long career. It starts full speed ahead and only lets down twice in the action—once when Tom slides down the side of a cliff on a rope, and again when he drops out of an airplane into the Colorado river.

It might be added that the Grand Canyon of Arizona is a prominent member of the cast and gives able support to Mix. It allows the redoubtable star to skim around its dizzy edges on Tony his horse, and to ride through its dangerous air pockets in a plane. It shows remarkable self-control as Tom glances and ricochets off its side. Seriously speaking, the scenes in the Grand Canyon are said to be the most marvelous pieces of motion picture business ever attempted.

And to mix in a little comedy, Larry Semon will be seen in "The Show." In fact, Larry is the whole show himself usually, so the Glendale theatre's offering carries a double punch that should bring out every lover of fun and thrills.

Wild horses, in bands of 200 or more, may be found in Southern Idaho, especially along the Snake river in the more arid and isolated sections. These animals are as wild as deer and have no owners. It is said they have a habit of enticing domesticated horses from ranches.

Better Homes Idea Backed by Harding

CHICAGO — President Harding has given his personal endorsement to the movement inaugurated by the American homes bureau for a national "Better Homes Week" to be instituted next October as an annual event.

"It gives me special pleasure," wrote President Harding, in reply to a letter from William B. Wreford, "to record my endorsement and approval of the 'Better Homes Week.' It may be trite, but it is everlastingly true that the home is the cornerstone of our civilization. Better homes, more attractive homes, homes whose occupants will find true refreshment and real inspiration to increased efforts for education and culture—such homes are the ones which assure greatest stability to our institutions, greatest security to our society. I cannot but feel that the effort you are making is one which deserves a wider projection, and I would be glad if your example might presently be an inspiration to a nation-wide enterprise of the same kind."

The idea back of the "Better Homes Week" movement is to educate the American people to make the home beautiful and thereby create a home environment that will have a lasting cultural influence upon the nation. It is planned during the week set aside for the purpose to demonstrate in exposition and exhibits of model rooms and homes in towns and cities throughout the country the facility with which even people of small means may make their homes harmonious and attractive.

Radio Growing Fast Throughout Glendale

By GEORGE VAN SANDS
Radio Editor The Evening News

Have never heard any one dispute yet, but what Glendale really is the fastest growing city in the country, and from all indications radio is growing in leaps and bounds right along with it? If you want any proof, just glance your eyes toward the roof-tops in practically any part of Glendale that you happen to be in. There is not a day goes by but what several new aerials are pointed toward the heavens to bring down this invisible force traveling through the air and carries into our homes this unlimited new source of education and entertainment. One of the main reasons for its great popularity lies in the fact that, with the exception of the relatively cheap initial cost of installation, it's all free and without charge. One thing these profiteers have never attempted to do is to charge us for the air we breathe, so there is not much chance of them getting a corner on it now and trying to make us pay for the use of the air through which we receive radiograms.

Was out on East Acacia avenue the other day and counted six new aerials that were not there the week before, and this will hold true in practically any neighborhood in Glendale. Out in Verdugo Woodlands, an aerial will be erected this week, that will, I believe, be the tallest of any in the city. Just stop and think for a moment of the steady march of scientific invention from the time the old Verdugo family built that rose covered adobe home, and the King of Spain was giving away free to his friends, whole sections in California, to the present day when an aerial will cast its shadow over this very same adobe home, capable of receiving wireless messages from all over the country and the King of Spain is out of the real estate business and you have to pay big money for even a building lot in the very same neighborhood.

Questions on Radio and Their Answers

Question: I have a short wave regenerative receiver. Whenever I turn the variometers in certain positions I get clicks in the phones which keep clicking like the tick of a clock, only much slower. Will you please tell me how to remedy this trouble? Will a condenser across the secondary of the vario-coupler improve the strength of the signals or make the tuning sharper?—D. L., Glendale.

Answer: The clicking is something very unusual. You might try varying the "B" battery value, or varying the grid leak. A condenser across the secondary will not help much if you already have a variometer in series with it. Try taking out the variometer and putting in the condenser instead, but both at the same time.

Question: I installed a set in a damp room, and while I could hear the music at first, the signals have gradually become fainter and fainter until I can not hear a single thing at the present time. I am using a 75-ohm receiver. Do you think a pair of 3000-ohm receivers will make any difference, and do you think that the dampness of the room affects the apparatus any —Wm. G., Glendale.

Answer: Your receiver has probably "gone bad," as the 75-ohm receivers are not efficient and will not last long. The addition of a pair of 3000-ohm receivers will make an enormous difference. Get them, by all means. The dampness may have affected the windings on the loose coupler, as the windings have a tendency to pick up and hold dampness. Your lead-in may be grounded by hitting some damp floor or wall.

Question: I have a short wave regenerative set with two stages of amplication and am using 3000-ohm phones, but would like to make a home-made loud speaker at the least possible expense. Can you advise me how to go about it?—A. L. C., Glendale.

Answer: Go around to a second hand store and see if you can not pick up a horn from one of those old style talking machines. Get a block of hardwood about two inches square and about six inches long. Hollow out a hole from end to end about an inch and a half in diameter, making the hole as smooth as possible. Then make a hole in the center on one face of the block so that you can stick the small end of the horn so that it will connect with the hole you have in it from end to end. Make the horn tight fitting in the block, using some putty to make a tight fit. Put your head phones one to each end of the block, and you will have a loud speaker that will not look as fancy, but will to all purposes answer the same as a $45 loud speaker.

SLAIN FOR MONEY, BELIEF

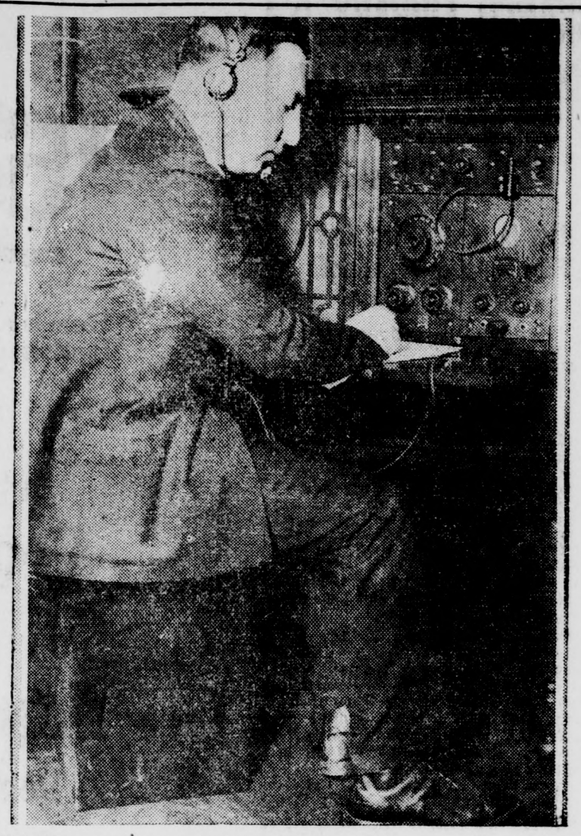
LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Deputy sheriffs today continued their investigation of circumstances surrounding the mysterious deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Dayton, in Dayton canyon, near Chatsworth park. Their charred bones were found in the ruins of a burned mountain cabin. That the couple was murdered for money, and that their home was fired to destroy evidence of the crime, is the belief of Deputy Sheriffs Allen and Sweesy.

A clew which was declared to indicate a revenge murder was said to have been supplied investigators by a lieutenant of police. Dayton was reported to have been worth about $60,000, and neighbors said he kept much of his money somewhere about the premises.

MAN BURNED TO DEATH

REDDING, April 19. — Milton T. Kite, 84, retired dairyman, was burned to death at his home last night. His clothing caught fire from an open fireplace in the dining room. He crawled to the kitchen and was found dead there by his son, Allen W. Kite, upon returning a few minutes later.

Radiophone Is Here To Stay



While many persons believe that the radio craze will only be with us for a short time, it is safe to say that the wireless phone is with us to stay. When the motion picture film and the phonograph were invented they were denounced as impractical and declared a fancy. Yet, they are with us today. The same for the radiophone. Within the next ten, or, yes, even five years, they will be part of nearly every household, even as the phonograph and sewing machine. Even now they are being installed in many domiciles. One manufacturer has perfected an outfit that looks similar to a cabinet. It is shown in the above illustration, with its owner taking down notations.

CAPACITIVE REACTANCE

A direct current of electricity as from a battery or direct current dynamo will not flow in a circuit containing a condenser. This is because the dielectric is an insulator and prevents current flow. An alternating current will not actually flow through a condenser either, but it will appear to, since it is flowing to and fro on either side of the dielectric. The dielectric may be compared to an elastic partition in a pipe full of water. If a pump causes the water in the pipe to flow in one direction, then the other, the elastic partition will stretch in the alternate directions a certain distance. There will be a back pressure of the partition upon the pressure exerted by the pump, which is equal to the pump pressure at every instant. If the partition is sufficiently elastic, it will stretch without breaking, so that the water moves to and fro under the pressure of the pump without passing through the partition. The alternating current flows in a circuit containing a condenser in a similar manner and appears to be flowing through the condenser without actually doing so.

An alternating current is one whose strength periodically increases from zero to a maximum value and decreases to zero in first one direction, them the other. The alterations of current are due to increases and decreases of electrical pressure in alternate directions. A condenser in the circuit is alternately charged and discharged as the current changes. The back pressure of the condenser upon that of the source of electromotive force is constantly equal to the latter. If one increases and decreases the other does also, and both are in step with each other. Since there are opposing pressures, the current will not rise and fall in step with the applied pressure, but will attain its maximum value in each direction before the pressure. The current is then said to "lead" the pressure. Also, since the current does not rise and fall in step with the pressure changes there must be an effective resistance caused by the condenser. This effective resistance does not choke back the current, but assists it. If we call the effective resistance in this "reactance" it is seen that the reactance under consideration has just the opposite effect of inductive reactance. We can call it "capacitive reactance." Capacitive reactance may then be used to nullify the effect of inductive reactance in an alternating current circuit. In the case of inductive reactance an increase of reactance means a decrease of current, providing the applied pressure remains constant. An increase of capacitive reactance, however, causes an increase of current under the same conditions.

Capacitive reactance decreases with an increase of either condenser capacity or frequency. The converse is aso true—that is, that capacitive reactance increases with a decrease of either condenser capacity or frequency. Compare this with variation of inductive reactance.

NEW APPARATUS AND DEVICES

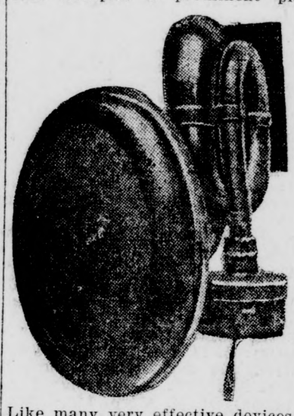
RADIO ENGINEER, CUTTING AND WASHINGTON RADIO CORP

THE VOCAROLA

Among the many devices available for reproducing the radio concerts with large sound volume the Vocarola occupies a prominent place.



Like many very effective devices, it is quite simple. The horn itself is of metal, shaped somewhat like an automobile horn, and has a metal screen over the large opening. The horn is mounted upon a metal base, which can be hung on the wall or mounted in any other suitable place.

The horn does not, of course, give the blasts of sound that an automobile horn does. Instead, a very interesting telephone receiver is connected to the small end so that the strains of music or the words of the speeches are reproduced and sent through the horn to the listeners without distortion. This receiver has a corrugated diaphragm of metal which accounts for the agreeable lack of distortion, at least in some measure. It is very ruggedly constructed and will not get out of order as quickly as a delicate mechanism. And yet it puts out sound in large volume.

The Vocarola is connected to a one, or preferably, a two-stage amplifier by means of a cord and plug in the usual manner. The cord is sufficiently long to allow of placing the horn at some little distance from the radio set. With it the whole family and the evening guests as well may be entertained. If the user is not located too far away from the broadcasting station the volume of sound will be large enough to provide for dancing in a large sized room.

THREE YOUTHS ARE KILLED

FORT WORTH, April 19.—Three youths from Columbus, Ohio, were instantly killed by a Texas & Pacific passenger train west of this city shortly after midnight. The dead: John Shoemaker, Carl Vance Riggs and Elmer Thill. According to Edward Miner, a companion, who was not injured, the boys had lain down on the track in fun while waiting for a train. Miner, who is also from Columbus, said he refused to join in the prank.

CHERBOURG, France, April 18—Accompanied by her mother and a maid, Mary Landon Baker, who has twice left her fiance, Allister McCormick of Chicago, "waiting at the altar" arrived here today on the Aquitania. A cabled greeting from McCormick awaited her. Miss Baker said she was anxious for the moment when she will be married.

PAPERWEIGHT FIVE LOSE TO WHITTIER HIGH 43-14

Post-Season Basketball Game Results Disastrously for Glendale's Gang

By HOWARD M'GILLIS,
Sporting Editor, The Evening News.

In a post-season basketball game played yesterday afternoon in the local high school gymnasium the Glendale high school 110-pound "paperweights" went down to defeat before the Whittier high school squad by the score of 43 to 14. The contest was all Whittier throughout, the former state champions playing rings around their opponents at practically every department of the game.

The first half was more of an even match than the last, the teams battling subbornly at all times. At half time the score stood at 19 to 12 in favor of the visitors.

Neel Stars for Locals

Neel was the outstanding star on the Glendale quintet, while the bright lights for the winners were LeMon, forward, and Maine, center. These three played rings around all of the rest of the players on the floor.

The lineups:

Glendale—Osborne and Swaney, forwards; Neel, center; McAllister and Jensen, guards.

Whittier—LeMon and Killingsworth, forwards; Maine, center; Scantling and McGrory, guards.

Yesterday's game was arranged by Mr. Miller, who coached last year's Whittier squad to the California state title. Mr. Miller is now a member of the faculty of the local high school.

Baseball Squad Starts Practice Again

After a week's rest, which included the annual spring vacation, the Glendale high school baseball team is again hard at practice in daily workouts preparatory to the regular league game with Alhambra on Friday. After getting away to a flying start in the Central league this year by trimming the South Pasadena Tigers by the lopsided score of 12 to 0, the locals struck a decided slump and have lost both contests played since then. Every possible effort will be made to take Friday's pastime, as Alhambra is an ancient diamond rival of the Red and Black institution.

The game, which will be played on the local field, will be started at 4 o'clock. Following is Coach Butterfield's probable lineup:

Tagging All Bases

The wild-eyed Cleveland Indians once more confounded their critics by falling on three St. Louis pitchers for 22 hits and winning their fifth straight victory, 17 to 2. The Indians are the only undefeated team in the majors.

The St. Louis Cardinals were victimized by their pitchers yesterday, five of Rickey's staff being manhandled by the Chicago Cubs. The Cards dropped to second place as a result of the defeat.

The well known Mr. Cobb's Detroit Tigers took another one in the nape of the neck, the White Sox winning 5 to 1.

Former Boston stars, now with the Yankees, proved the undoing of the Red Socks yesterday, Joe Bush and Sam Jones collaborating in pitching the Yankees into a victory while Everett Scott and Wallie Schang hit the ball hard and their work on the defense was a feature.

The Sport Crucible

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 18.—You can thank Floyd Fitzsimmons, late of Benton Harbor, Mich., now of Michigan City, Ind., for the fact that Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, is not to link arms with Jack Dempsey and Johnny Kilbane and join the merry throng along the Strand in that dear London. At least, not in the immediate future.

Benny has a previous engagement with Mr. Fitzsimmons to fight one of three men at Michigan City on July 4. Otherwise, he might show unseemly haste in accepting an offer of $45,000 to box Ernie Rice in London. The offer is advanced by Louis Healy, a responsible promoter, which makes that end of it quite all right, and Rice is a very fair sort of third rater, which fixes that.

Giving the proposition the left to right, it seems altogether possible that Leonard will be disposed to keep the worthy Mr. Healy in mind for future reference some day.

The basketball rules committee is responsible for a bit of constructive legislation in taking some of the punch out of the foul goal, a somewhat annoying feature of an otherwise commendable game.

The doubling of the penalty for personal fouls coming within fifteen feet of the basket means that players will hesitate before they deliberately foul a man to prevent him from scoring a field goal.

The latter is the life blood of basketball, this business of scoring point after point from the foul line being about as interesting as a bill of lading.

However, the game, as played in the colleges and among the amateurs, can stand improvement from the standpoint of the spectacular. The professional game is the best.

Like the Bengal game, basketball looks much better in a cage.

Sports Chatter

By Bill Unmack
Pacific Sports Service

Bill Johnston, former national tennis champion, has started serious work for another invasion of the east to gain his ambition of regaining the national title which Bill Tilden relieved him of in 1920. There has been considerable mystery as to whether Johnston would again compete in the east and whether he would be available for the Davis cup team this year to defend against the challenging nations.

That Johnston is taking his tennis this year more seriously than ever, and that he is getting into shape earlier than usual is due to the fact that the East versus west matches will be played at Berkeley, California, May 6 and 7. Bill Tilden of Philadelphia, Vincent Richards of New York and Laurence Rice of Boston have been named as the three members of the eastern team to compete against the west, which team has not yet been named. Dr. Sumner Hardy, president of the California Lawn Tennis Association has announced that the veteran, Fred Alexander, former national champion, who, with H. Hackett, formed one of the most brilliant doubles teams this country has ever had, has been invited to make up the fourth unit of the eastern team. Alexander is now a resident of Los Angeles, but is eligible to play on the eastern team.

The eastern quartet is particularly strong and no one knows it better than Bill Johnston. Just who will team with Johnston on the western team is problematical, but such national stars as Willis Davis, Roland Roberts, Robert and Howard Kinsey, John Strachan, "Peck" Griffin, Phil Neer, the national intercollegiate champion, are all available and it is rumored that Walter Hayes of Chicago is also being given consideration as a member of the western team.

While the Pacific coast has been strongly represented in eastern tournaments, particularly in recent years, it is doubtful if as many California players will be seen in the east this season. Bill Johnston and Willis Davis are the only two who are sure of going at this time. The Kinsey brothers are not sure whether they can make the trip and in any event they have to retain their sectional doubles championship to be sure of going.

One item of news that will be disappointing to the eastern tennis followers is that the national girl champion, little Helen Wills, will not go east this year. She has a heavy program on this coast, including the national girls' hard court title matches to be played at Berkeley July 1 to 4. Her game last year made a distinct appeal to all eastern critics, not alone in her brilliant win in the national junior event, but she was able to get on the courts with seasoned national stars and make a showing that was the equivalent and in many instances better than that shown by her more experienced opponents.

The World Over

By Franklin R. Morse
Pacific Sports Service

Clarence Pinkston, Olympic Games spring board champion diver, and until last week, holder of the National title, was so completely outclassed at the national titular event held at the Olympic club tank at San Francisco, that the spectators rubbed their eyes in wonderment as to whether this could be the diver of yesterday. Pinkston did not even place when his title was won by Albert White, a sophomore of Stanford university. Pinkston splashed badly and in the last dive allotted to him even struck the board with his arms during the turn which threw him in a heap in the water.

Considerable interest is evidenced by followers of the ring as to the ability that will be shown by the brace of Filipino boxers that are being brought out here from Manila by Frank Churchill, director of the Olympic boxing stadium of that place. The names of the two ring men are "Pancho Villa" and Elino Flores. Villa is a flyweight and Flores a bantam. Each is the respective champion in his class on the islands. The few samples of boxers that have come out of the Orient have not been impressive in the past, so that no one is looking to see the boxing firmament set on fire. The Filipinos will make a tour of the various boxing centers of the United States beginning from the Northwest. They now are crossing the Pacific ocean.

What little life, a mighty small spark at best, existed in Rugby in California, was given another jolt by Coach "Pop" Warner when he asked the students at Stanford university to cancel a proposed Rugby match and concentrate on the American game. Warner doubtless is cognizant of the fact that the two styles do not mix and that the Cardinals have a man's size job in learning their own game without further fussing with the English brand.

The University of Freshman tennis team will be materially strengthened by the presence of Philip Bettens, junior California state champion. Bettens is one of the "coming" players among the younger set and is steadily improving his game.

In defeating the University of Pennsylvania team in the four-mile relay race, the Cambridge runners sustained the reputation Englishmen have earned as being the best of the long distance runners. In all long distance records, Englishmen have held the preponderance. It may have been some satisfaction to the Pennsylvanians, however, to have urged the English team to the breaking of the record in order to win. The Blue and Red is likely to be a favorite in the event at their own relay carnival for which they will return in time to take part. Although they did not win, the fact that the record was broken is enough to make the Pennsylvanians an odds on favorite.

Dorothy Wheat Is Birthday Hostess

Dorothy Wheat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wheat of 336 West Park avenue, celebrated her eleventh anniversary on Sunday with a prettily appointed birthday party in honor of a number of her little school friends. The occasion was enjoyed in playing games, after which a course of delicious refreshments was served. The large table was spread with the beautifully arranged birthday cake and eleven brightly lighted candles placed in its center.

FEUD CAUSE OF KILLING

BERKELEY, April 19.—According to President David P. Barrows of the University of California, a colonel in the Fifty-seventh infantry, which saw service in Siberia, a bitter feud between General Semenoff and Admiral Kolchak was responsible for the killing of American soldiers by Semenoff's forces. Barrows said it was necessary to understand conditions in Russia to judge the Cossack leader.

"General Semenoff is a human brute," Barrows said. "A man to whom death is a jest, but he was a friend to American troops in Siberia and just now is much misunderstood."

HE CANNOT BITE NOW

ST. LOUIS, April 19. — John Busch is temporarily toothless today. His teeth repose in the safe of the Soulard police station, while Dr. Frank Paschek, dental surgeon, is at liberty on bond, charged with having forcibly extracted the teeth—bridge, plates and all — from Busch's mouth in broad daylight.

Busch, who comes from Valmeyer, Ill., and has suddenly acquired a lisp overnight, accuses the dentist of stealing the teeth. This Dr. Paschek denies.

REAL ESTATE PAGES FROM PAPERS TO BE DISPLAYED

Exhibit Will Demonstrate to Realtors Different Methods Of Handling Business

An exhibit of the real estate pages of the newspapers of the United States and Canada will be an interesting feature at the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, at San Francisco, May 31 to June 3, according to E. P. Hayward, secretary of the Glendale Realty Board.

The publicity department of the National Association has invited all the daily newspapers of general circulation of the United States and Canada to send to San Francisco for the exhibit sample pages of the real estate sections of any regular issue of the paper of 1922.

Real estate editors may select any issue they please except pages of special editions which are not desired. Each newspaper may send two pages, but these pages must be from the same edition and issue of the paper. They must be mounted flat on cardboard slightly larger than the pages.

To Demonstrate Methods

The exhibit will demonstrate to realtors and real estate news editors the methods of handling real estate news in various parts of the United States and Canada.

A committee of judges will select the best exhibit, taking into consideration subject matter, method of presentation, accuracy, printing and make-up. A certificate signed by the judges and President Irving B. Hiett will be presented to the real estate editor of the newspaper judged to have the best exhibit.

The certificate will declare that this newspaper was judged to have exhibited the best real estate news section at the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Women Show Interest In Science Classes

Someone said that "man works from sun to sun; woman's work is never done." And the writer of that little truism evidently knew whereof he spoke. Wherever one goes he sees women who show the marks of constant toil, drudges to their household duties. The remarkable part of this condition is the fact that such a great amount of the effort spent by these women is unnecessary because it is spent needlessly.

Mrs. Marchmont, nationally known demonstrator, is authority for the statement that a big percentage of the work done in the kitchen by women can be eliminated. That by knowledge of new methods and processes the housewife can conserve much of her energy.

"For many years," states Mrs. Marchmont; "I have studied the housewife's problems in the kitchen with a view to solving them along the lines of lightening her burdens. I have made a special study of the everyday cooking that all women are called upon to care for and have spent my best efforts on eliminating needless work. I have found that by adopting improved methods and modern equipment that great savings in both time and food can readily be effected. Quite naturally as I endeavor to solve new cooking problems I run across many new recipes and develop others and as I travel from place to place many problems come to my attention as well as most of the new dishes.

"These things I pass on to my domestic science classes. This I shall do for the women of Glendale and vicinity who attend the classes at the Trice Furniture Store at 118 West Broadway each afternoon from 2 to 5, next week from Monday to Saturday. And I am indeed gratified to know that so many have already registered."

THEODORE KOETHEN TO BE BURIED IN ARLINGTON

Body of Eagle Rock Youth Is Brought From France; News of Glendale's Vicinity

W. L. Koethen of Eagle Rock left the last of the week for Washington, D. C., to attend the funeral services for his son, Private Theodore C. Koethen, whose body has just been returned from France where he died in Camp Hospital 24, Langres, on July 15, 1918. He was a member of Company E. 117th Engineers, one of the first units to leave Los Angeles in 1917. Interment will be in the National cemetery at Arlington, Va., with the Washington chapter of the Rainbow division in charge of the services.

The American Legion at Eagle Rock is known as the Theodore Koethen post in honor of the city's hero son. He was well known in Glendale, having graduated from high high school here in the class of '15 with high honors.

Tujunga Will Celebrate

The Tujunga Chamber of Commerce is planning a big celebration about May 10, the date announced for opening the bridge over the big Tujunga river. County Supervisor Wright and other officials, as well as representatives from the various valley cities, will be invited to attend. It had been hoped that the bridge would be completed by April 19 when the Glendale Chamber of Commerce trade excursion visited the valley, thus giving greater significance to the celebration.

Comedy for Eagle Rock

Eagle Rock Community Players, a unique organization for a city of its size, will present George Broadhurst's famous comedy, "What Happened to Jones," on Friday and Saturday nights of this week at the Central school auditorium under the direction of Elgie Lowry Fischer. An unusually strong cast has been obtained from local talent, it is said.

Improving Highways

Road improvements for Tujunga are assured as B. J. Kirst, county road foreman for the district, is moving his camp into that community and will commence the season by grading Sunset boulevard from El Centro street to Los Angeles avenue. Later this block will be oiled. Monte Vista boulevard and other highways also will be put into condition, according to Ed Forster, chairman of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce's road committee.

Second Wilson-Bell Hardware Co. Store Opens in Glendale

The Wilson-Bell Hardware company today announce the opening of their second store in Glendale at 227 North Brand boulevard in the new Lawson block, one of the most model mercantile establishments in southern California, with a full line of builders' and kitchen hardware.

Some time ago Messrs. J. M. Wilson and S. F. Bell opened a store at 1738 South San Fernando Road in the Gateway building where their business has made remarkable strides. At the same time they reserved space in the Lawson building and with an extra large front they have today one of the best displays possible.

There is no need to dwell on the great variety of stock, according to Mr. Bell, who believes the builders will learn of it as soon as his firm is able to attend to the trade, but he does want to impress prospective patrons with the quality of the goods handled.

Jesse Flower, who has been employed in the hardware business here for years, is associated with the new Wilson-Bell store and he thoroughly understands the demands of local patrons.

'LAST SHOT' GIVES NOVEL SKETCH TO VAUDEVILLE

All-Star Cast Features Act at T. D. & L.; 'Bought and Paid For' in Film

When it comes to packing thrills into 15 minutes, hats off to Arthur Clare who last night gave the pre-circuit tour showing at the T. D. & L. here of "The Last Shot," a motion picture making playlet concerning the qualms of a great actress and her dream about the Russian revolution. Mr. Clare wrote, produced, directs, acts in this marvelous novelty while Helen Raymond, continental star from the Palace Royal playhouse, London, carries the leading role with Arthur Gallagher, film star of years standing and war veteran, plays opposite her.

Mrs. Clare has a great character part while Harry Kendall is another of all-star cast. E. M. Gilbert, lately leader of the Kinema orchestra, directs the music—an arrangement of Tchaikowsky overture (1812). Mr. Clare came to this land of sunshine playing the role of the Colonel in "The Better 'Ole" with DeWolf Hopper.

In "The Last Shot," one sees the corner of a studio stage with Miss Raymond as the actress waiting for the director and leading man. She falls asleep, dreams of an incident in the Russian revolution being pictured, awakens from the doze as the result of a shot, sees the scene "previewed" and the act closes with a clever bit of comedy. It must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

"Bought and Paid For," a William deMille production with Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, is the film feature on the splendid T. D. & L. bill holding over for today and tomorrow.

LOCAL CARBURETOR COMPANY MAKES GOOD RECORD

Winfield Added to Equipment of Many Cars Here and Proves Its Merit

The Winfield Carburetor company of 314 East Broadway manufactures a carburetor which is the result of more than five years' experimenting and testing a new principle of carburetion evolved by Eddie Winfield and Sam Durand, the principals in the concern.

The carburetor, which is patented, is so built that it maintains a high velocity of air past the jets at all speeds and mixes the gasoline with air at four different stages before it reaches the explosion chamber of the motor, thus insuring proper atomization and a mixture that will give the utmost in economy and allow a motor to run with perfect and even combustion on each cylinder at all speeds.

Makes Racing Record

For the first public demonstration of the Winfield carburetor a Ford speedster with a stock cylinder head was used. In a 50-mile race at Hanford, Calif., in competition with factory racing cars such as Stutz, Mercer, Duesenberg, Hudson, Delage and others, the "flivver" took second place, using only two gallons of regular Standard gasoline.

This demonstration and victories in several other races brought so many requests for carburetors that Winfield and Durand quit their auto repairing business and have devoted their time to manufacturing of this wonder working accessory.

Demand Is Unusual

No attempt, as yet, has been made by the company to advertise or sell the carburetors outside of Glendale and, in spite of the fact that production has been doubled each month, the demand has been so great that a complete carburetor has never been on hand more than three hours while orders for quantity shipments are coming from all over the United States.

To meet the increasing demand more machinery is being installed and an up-to-date factory is planned. That the carburetor is a standard article and an improvement over the best of other makes, is proved to the minds of the manufacturers by the fact that installations demonstrating every claim of power, speed, economy, etc., have been made on Glendale cars of all models including Buick, Cadillac, Dodge, Ford, Hudson, Metz, Maxwell, Mercer, National, Nash, Oakland, Pierce Arrow and Studebaker.

HEALTH-AGAIN TALKS

By Dr. Otey

REGARDING DIET

The average layman is influenced more in the selection of his diet by religious views than any other factor. Dieting is largely a religion, and fasting, a religious rite. Possibly no other department of life harbors more conflicting views and contrasting practices than dieting, and mostly they have the cart before the horse. Most dieticians are walking denials of the theories they advocate.

The big idea seems to be to find by theorizing and experimenting what food an abnormal digestive tract will make the least fuss about rather than to put that digestive tract into condition through renewing its supply of nerve energy and circulation so that it will digest anything that any other digestive tract will digest. Of course, there are times when a digestive tract must have rest or be given predigested or specially selected food while Osteopathy rebuilds the operating mechanism so that it will digest any edible thing.

If you like the Osteopathic idea phone Glendale 2201.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Unusual In Day's News
Sewage Problem's Solution
For the Good of Glendale
Fastest Growing in America

By Gil A. Cowan

ALWAYS there are interesting events in the day's news.

Dwight Noyes Clark, 93, oldest golf player in the country, died yesterday after having played at Pinehurst, N. C., for many years. That will interest golfers who argue the game prolongs life.

Eudora H. Savage, Michigan agricultural college dean of women, yesterday at a meeting of the co-eds, warned them against the temptations of spring and suggested rules of conduct. Among them were no canoeing after dark and while canoeing the wearing of corsets. Now the question arises, does she consider the latter armor plate protection against spooning?

Sixteen years ago today San Francisco was a smoking city of ruin with fires following the earthquake still burning over vast areas of business and residential sections. And today city officials estimate that a total of $503,800,000 has been expended in building construction and improvements during the sixteen years which have effaced all but the memory of the holocaust.

Editorially the Los Angeles Times commends the solution of Pasadena's sewage problem, as follows:

"The city engineer of Los Angeles says a $12,500,000 outfall sewer is absolutely necessary, that an activated sludge system is impracticable and that the water and fertilizer which might be saved out of the waste with which he proposes to pollute the beaches isn't needed, anyhow. Meanwhile, under the very eyes of any councilman who would use his eyes, the city of Pasadena is profitably doing the thing which Los Angeles officialdom blithely says can't be done.

"The Crown City's present sewer farm is admittedly far from being a shining example of what can be done in sewage treatment and utilization and yet that city would not dream of doing what the Los Angeles officials are proposing to do. Pasadena saves all its sewage water and with it irrigates a tract of nearly 600 acres of land. Its facilities do not permit of as effective a treatment of the water as might be desired or of the utilization of solids, but with its projected new system Pasadena will be able to treat its sewage so as to make it entirely inoffensive and to realize enough clean water for the irrigation of many hundreds more acres of land besides transforming all solids into valuable fertilizer material. For anyone to minimize the importance of any feasible step looking to the conservation of water and fertilizer values in this section is a betrayal of ignorance. Wake up, city officials of Los Angeles! You are years behind the times!"

Many things are occurring for the good of Glendale. The Chamber of Commerce trade excursion today will reap rich reward for not those alone who made the trip but all lines of endeavor as well.

The organizing of the automobile dealers yesterday afternoon will work for the common good of all concerned. It spells co-operation and friendliness.

And tomorrow night the Forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will offer ample opportunity to the members who wish to bring up other matters for civic good. Be there!

If an eastern city the size of Glendale had the number of new buildings in a year that go up here in a month—

Well, there is little necessity of commenting on that.

"Glendale—the fastest growing city in America" seems insufficient for those who step out and see how things are booming.

And were you to go over to Eagle Rock, or out to Burbank in the San Fernando valley, the Chamber of Commerce slogan might well be amended to read, "Glendale—the center for the fastest growing cities in America."

ALICE FRANK AND HARRY A. JAMES ARE MARRIED

Reception Follows Impressive Church Ceremony; Couple to Reside Here

wore a burnt orange colored georgette crepe gown, embroidered in self color, and carried a bouquet of very delicate pink roses and greenery. She was followed by the ring bearer, little Brahm Van den Berg, Jr., carrying a calla lily, in the cup of which was the wedding ring.

Bride Charmingly Dignified

The bride was next in the procession. She made a very lovely picture in her charmingly dignified gown of white satin, which was quite simply made and was decorated with seed pearls. From the shoulders of the gown hung a long train of satin, over which was draped the wedding veil of silk net, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, orange blossoms and greenery.

Next in the procession came the ushers, which included Harry Webb, head usher, Norman Whytock, John Smalley and Dr. J. Anderson. The bridal party was met at the altar by Harry A. James, the bridegroom, C. Warner Van Valkenburg of Hollywood, best man, and Harrison Frank, brother of the bride, who gave her in marriage. After the ceremony Mrs. Romayne Hunkins, Jr., played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." More than 200 friends were present to witness the ceremony, including the officers of Glen Eyrie chapter of the Easter Star, of which Mrs. James is a member, and who attended in a body, and several officers of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which she is also a member.

Reception at Home

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride, 1558 East Wilson avenue. Pictures were taken of the wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. James received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. The house was decorated in pepper boughs and bridal-wreath. Those in the receiving line included Mr. and Mrs. James, Mrs. Harriet Frank, Mrs. Van Valkenburg, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Mrs. James, Sr., Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. C. Reiterman. Miss Barbara Mitchell caught the bride's bouquet.

At the reception Miss Viola Yorba, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Van Valkenburg, very beautifully sang "At Dawning" (Cadman). Later in the evening Mrs. W. E. Maby, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hunkins, rendered several vocal selections very pleasingly, including "Sacrament" (McDermid) and "Ho! Mr. Piper" (Pearl Curran). Brahm Van den Berg also rendered a wonderful piano number. Mrs. Jack Thomas of the White Inn was the caterer in charge of serving refreshments, which included fruit salad, sandwiches, cakes coffee and wedding cake.

Many Beautiful Gifts

The many beautiful gifts of silver, cut grass, hand-painted china, handmade articles, etc., which Mr. and Mrs. James had received as wedding gifts were the source of much admiration of their friends. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip by automobile to Carmel-by-the-Sea Mr. and Mrs. James will be at home to their friends at 1558 East Wilson avenue.

Mrs. James, whose father was the late Eugene Frank, an artist of note, has many friends in Glendale and other cities of the southland. She received her education abroad and has been spending some time recently in Dallas, Tex., and vicinity, where she was disposing of a collection of her father's paintings. She was the guest of honor at several pre-nuptial social events given by her friends.

Mr. James is associated with Church Films, Inc., and other motion picture enterprises. During the war he was an entertainer and in Red Cross work.

Paint Costs Little

Compared to Repairs

EVERY home owner must choose—either to keep his house well-painted always or to make certain expensive repairs frequently.

Before you decide this question, price one item alone—lumber. You'll find how costly repairing is. Paint saves the necessity for most repairs.

To get the utmost economy from paint, one must use a high quality product and use it when it is needed.

The best paint spreads easily—it saves labor cost. It covers a larger area per gallon than "cheap" paint.

But most important, the best paint, properly applied serves many years longer than "cheap" paint.

Real economy lies, then, in painting your house when it needs it—without delay—and in using the best paint.

The best paints are scientific in formula and preparation. We've made them for 73 years—to meet the weather conditions in the West.

The best materials—PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, pure zinc and pure colors—are combined in Fuller's Paints in scientifically exact proportions with long-time skill.

Where 80 Per Cent of Criminals Come From

CHICAGO—"From the ranks of neglected children come 80 per cent of the nation's criminals. Eight of every ten murders are committed by men and women who were neglected or exploited in their childhood."

This was the statement of Mark T. McKee, of Detroit, who is pushing plans for a home for motherless and fatherless children for the Brotherhood of American Yeomen.

"Four hundred thousand of the half-million men, women and children who are incarcerated in our jails and penitentiaries," Mr. McKee said, "come from the same class. On one side are the riches amassed by the exploiters of child life, on the other 80 per cent of all the crimes on earth."

EDITOR TARRED FEATHERED

OAKLAND, April 19. — Police today sought three unmasked men who early today seized Philip Reilly, editor and publisher of "The Free Press," a weekly paper, near his home, forced him into an automobile and, after carrying him to the Berkeley hills, removed his clothing and applied a thick coat of tar and feathers.

Reilly was bound and blindfolded but managed to work loose the ropes and then painfully plodded his way back to Berkeley, appearing at the police station to seek aid. He said he believed he could identify one of the three men.

DEBT FUNDING DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON, April 19. — The first session of the American debt funding commission held here and lasted for an hour and a half. Preliminary organization was completed with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon as chairman. Secretary Hughes was instructed to notify Great Britain that the United States is ready to proceed with the funding negotiations. It was decided that similar notices to France, Italy and Belgium will not be sent for the present, at least. After some general discussion the commission adjourned, to meet again at the call of the chair.

OPPOSES CUT IN OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A reduction in the army's officer personnel below 13,000 men would "scrap the national defense plan," it was declared today by Brigadier-General J. H. McRae, as its chief of staff before the senate army appropriations committee.

General McRae contended that an absolute minimum of 13,000 officers was needed, whether the enlisted strength was fixed at 115,000 or 150,000 men. He declared this figure would be 2,600 less than the number estimated necessary under the present national defense act.

WILSON YET IN POLITICS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Woodrow Wilson, sick and broken in health as he may be, has not retired from politics and has no intention of doing so.

This fact stood forth in bolder relief than ever before today as a result of the former president's letter to a St. Louis newspaper in which he scathingly took to task Senator Jas. A. Reed, Democrat of Missouri, who is coming up for re-election at the hands of the Missouri electorate this year.

PLANS NEW GOVERNMENT

MUKDEN, Manchuria, April 19.—General Chang Tso-Lin, war lord of Manchuria, today despatched 70,000 troops to Peking to pave the way for the establishment of a new Chinese government and to block interference with his plans by General Wu Pei Fu, rival military leader in northern China. Chang plans to call a unification conference shortly. This conference will be held in Tien Tsin. Advices state Peking is tense fearing the downfall of the government and a clash between Wu Pei Fu and Chang Tso-Lin for control.

"Wu Pei Fu is the sole obstacle to the unification of China," Chang Tso Lin said. Unless he agrees to the unification plans of Mukden and Canton, we will crush him. Foreign lives and property will be fully protected during this critical time."

INVESTIGATION WELCOMED

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—The administration welcomes the "fullest investigation" into the new government policy of leasing naval reserve oil fields to private interests for development, it was officially announced at the White House. President Harding caused the announcement to be made in view of the widespread criticism that has been aroused over the reported leasing of Tea Pot Dome, naval reserve No. 3, in Wyoming, to the Mammoth Oil company, a new corporation controlled by Harry F. Sinclair, Harry Payne Whitney and William Boyce Thompson.

BAR GERMANY, IS DECISION

GENOA, April 19.—By signing an economic treaty with the Russian soviet government, Germany barred herself from further discussion of an agreement between the Allies and soviet Russia. This is the decision of the five inviting powers, Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and Japan.

The decision was made public in a statement issued after the allied leaders had spent a whole day in conferences regarding the Russo-German treaty. The statement declared that Germany, by her act, violated conditions pledged when she entered the conference.

RUSSIAN FAMINE CHECKED

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—The terrible Russian famine has been met and checked through the operations of the American Relief administration, Secretary of Commerce Hoover reported to the senate committee. Much progress has been made and conditions are now so much better that Hoover said it may not be necessary to expend all of the $20,000,000 congress appropriated for Russian relief.

BEAUTY OF NATURE FOUND IN RUSTIC PARK PAVILION

manager of the F. P. Newport company, states that a new subdivision of the Verdugo Woodlands tract is to be opened on Sunday of this week. There are 185 lots lying north of Ramona Drive, on both sides of Canada boulevard, varying in price and charm. Some have the hills, others the running streams, some have the live oaks, others are on the level, and some combine two or more of the features which have made Verdugo Woodlands the kiddies' paradise.

Canada boulevard and other street work, as well as improvements such as light and water, are to be extended in the new section this summer and many a Sunday and holiday will be enjoyed by new home owners in the homes which will be erected on a five-cent car line into Glendale.

Opportunity for Glendale

Just to accommodate those residents of this city who appreciate the opportunity of reserving choice lots prior to Sunday sales, Mr. Twining urges every one to immediately go to the F. P. Newport Company office at 115 West Broadway and see Messrs. Stumpf or Parr. Otherwise some of the most beautiful homesites may get into the hands of eastern investors and they will take the profit, probably without even building a home.

Then, on Sunday, the crowds will be there and at the pavilion Robert Russell will serve one of those Spanish luncheons, at 12:30 o'clock, to all who come out to see this latest novelty. It isn't a question, "Will you be there?" for if you have a car and family and kiddies and thoughts of a home in the hills you will; but the real question in Mr. Twining's mind seems to be, "Will Glendale people permit this great opportunity to pass by?" when reservations of the most advantageous residential sites may be had for the asking!
